MUNICIPAL COURT MUNICH
The Committing Magistrate V
at Police Headquarters

Munich, 25 June 1959

Preliminary Hearing

In attendance:

Judge Mirus
Magistrate

Case:

Wilhelmine Dermopil
Charges: Treasonable relations

Mundigl,
deputy registrat

Having been produced from the police jail, Munich, Ettstrasse, the accused was interrogated pursuant to sect. 136 Code of Criminal Procedure.

Personal Data: Wilhelmine Dermopil, nee Rybnikar, born 24 May 1909 in Brno, other data previously recorded.

Facts:

The statements I made today when interrogated by the Criminal police are true and correct. I admit at this time, before a judge, that I know of my husband's relations with the Czechoslovak Intelligence Service, that I got to know Pospisil and the man called Mirek, that my husband received money and assignments, and that he also carried out these assignments to a certain extent. I, for my part, never received any assignments by Pospisil, Mirek, or my husband. I did not assist my husband in accomplishing his missions either.

SECTION IV (MUNICH)

FILE

Therefore the Court ordered that the

be signed.

1) The accused is urgently suspected of having maintained treasonable relations with the Czech Intelligence Service since March 1954, in violation of sect. 100 e German Penal Code.

Custody pending trial was ordered because the personal relations of the accused with foreign countries give cause to believe that there is danger of escape. Moreover, as things stand now, there is also danger of collusion pending the completion of investigations.

The accused was advised of the signing of the warrant at 1705 hours. She was advised of her right to appeal from the warrant or to file a motion of a preliminary hearing in lieu of appeal under sect. 114 d Code of Criminal Procedure.

I wish that the following person(s) be informed of my arrest:

Nobody, I myself shall write my husband.

For the time being, I shall file no appeal.

Respectfully,

s/ Wilma Darmopil accused

s/ Mandl
deputy registrar

Munich I.
